

Welcome to CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL, NELSON

SUNDAY 14 August 2022

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time | Te Rātapu Rua Tekau o He wā noa iho

Kia ora Cathedral Parishioners,

Don't forget to join in an historic anniversary when period dress, a re-enactment tent and an excerpt from the original 1842 sermon will set the scene for our Cathedral's 180 year celebration of the first Christian communion service led by Bishop Selwyn on Piki Mai.

We will be celebrating 180 years of Anglican activity on Church Hill during next Sunday's 10am Foundation Day Service on August 21.

To recreate Bishop Selwyn's historic tent gathering on August 28, 1842, which started the link between the Anglican church and Piki Mai, the commemoration service will begin in a tent on the Church Hill site (opposite the new apartments) and then conclude inside the Cathedral.

Bishop Selwyn stayed in Nelson for several months and on 4 September, on a wet and stormy morning, he delivered a sermon in support of a church building fund. A few hours later the storm blew down the tent. Fortunately, enough money was raised during Selwyn's visit to purchase a surveyor's room and immigration shed for conversion to a temporary church on Church Hill.

Bishop Selwyn was fluent in Te Reo and ran Māori and English language services on Sundays from 8am to 4:30pm. Services after sunset were not possible due to the lack of lighting.

The Cathedral today has continued Selwyn's example and includes Te Reo services each Sunday held by the Anglican Māori Mission. Selwyn's tent was fitted out with axe-hewn kneeling boards from nearby trees felled by local iwi and was filled to capacity with 200 attending the first tent service.

The first purpose-built church building on the hill was completed nine years later in 1851 and stood overlooking Trafalgar Street. The formal association with the Cathedral and the City was established in Nelson's history when Queen Victoria signed the Letters Patent to establish a Bishop's See (seat) in 1858 and this royal decree officially gave Nelson the status of city before it reached the normal 20,000 population. It only had 5,000 people at the time and cattle still wandered down the main street. So at the same time, Nelson gained its own Bishop and Cathedral and the town became a city.

The 180 year anniversary service will be combined with our annual Foundation Day commemoration of the existing Cathedral which has a foundation stone laid on August 2, 1925. The service will be followed by morning tea in the Cathedral as well as a koha for church missionaries.

We are inviting all Nelsonians to the service to mark this anniversary in Nelson's early history. There are not many places in New Zealand that can celebrate 180 years of worship and prayer on one site.

God Bless,
David Lucas

FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT WITH ALL THY MIGHT (CP423i)

- 1 Fight the good fight with all thy might;
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
lay hold on life, and it shall be thy joy and crown eternally.
- 2 Run the straight race through God's good grace, lift up thine eyes, and seek his face;
life with its way before us lies;
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.
- 3 Cast care aside, lean on thy guide;
his boundless mercy will provide;
trust, and thy trusting soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.
- 4 Faint not nor fear, his arms are near;
he changeth not, and thou art dear;
only believe, and thou shalt see that Christ is all in all to thee.

J.S.B Monsell, 1811-1875

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden;
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, so that we may truly love you and worthily praise your holy name;

Amen.

Minister of Liturgy Hear the teaching of Christ: "A new commandment
I give to you, that you love one another as I have loved you."

All Spirit of God, search our hearts.

The choir sings the Kyrie

The Invitation and the Confession

Minister of Liturgy Hear God's word to all who turn to Christ:
Jesus said: "Come to me all who labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

God has promised forgiveness to all who truly repent, turn to Christ in faith and are themselves forgiving.

In silence we call to mind our sins.

(Silence)

Let us confess our sins.

All Merciful God, we have sinned in what we have thought and said, in the wrong we have done and in the good we have not done.

We have sinned in ignorance; we have sinned in weakness; we have sinned through our own deliberate fault. We are truly sorry. We repent and turn to you.

Forgive us, for our Saviour Christ's sake, and renew our lives to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Absolution is pronounced by the Celebrant

Through the cross of Christ, God have mercy on you, pardon you and set you free. Know that you are forgiven and be at peace. God strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in life eternal. Amen.

Please remain seated while the choir sings the Gloria Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
Have mercy on us;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone
are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Minister of Liturgy The peace of Christ rule in our hearts.
All The Word of Christ dwell in us richly.

Sentence: Praise the Lord!
 O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
 for his steadfast love endures for ever.

Collect: Almighty God,
 in your Son Jesus Christ
 you have created a people for yourself;
 make us willing to obey you,
 till your purpose is accomplished and the earth is full of your glory.
 Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word
The Old Testament Lesson
Zechariah 8:1-8
Read by Lee-ann O'Brien

¹The word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying: ²Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. ³Thus says the LORD: I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts shall be called the holy mountain. ⁴Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand because of their great age. ⁵And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. ⁶Thus says the LORD of hosts: Even though it seems impossible to the remnant of this people in these days, should it also seem impossible to me, says the LORD of hosts? ⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts: I will save my people from the east country and from the west country; ⁸and I will bring them to live in Jerusalem. They shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness.

We remain seated as the choir sings Psalm 80 verses 1-3, and 8-18

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, you that led Joseph like a flock:
you that are enthroned upon the cherubim,
shine out in glory; |
| 2 | Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh:
stir up your power, and come to save us. |
| 3 | Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:
show us the light of your countenance
and we shall be saved. |
| 8 | You brought a vine out of Egypt:
you drove out the nations, and planted it in. |

- 9 You cleared the ground before it:
 and it struck root and filled the land.
- 10 The hills were covered with its shadow:
 and its boughs were like the boughs of the great cedars.
- 11 It stretched out its branches to the sea:
 and its tender shoots to the Great River.
- 12 Why then have you broken down its walls:
 so that every passer-by can pluck its fruit?
- 13 The wild boar out of the woods roots it up:
 and the locusts from the wild places devour it.
- 14 Turn to us again, O Lord of hosts:
 look down from heaven, and see.
- 15 Bestow your care upon this vine:
 the stock which your own right hand has planted.
- 16 As for those that burn it with fire and cut it down:
 let them perish at the rebuke of your countenance.
- 17 Let your power rest on the man at your right hand:
 on that son of man whom you made so strong for yourself.
- 18 And so we shall not turn back from you:
 give us life, and we will call upon your name.
- 19 Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:
 show us the light of your countenance
 and we shall be saved.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
 and to the Holy Spirit;
 as it was in the beginning is now
 and shall be for ever. Amen.

The New Testament Lesson

Hebrews 12:1-4

Read by Ernie Leaning

¹ Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, ² looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God. ³ Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart. ⁴ In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

AUTHOR OF FAITH, ETERNAL WORD (CP381)

Tune: Winchester New (CP34)

- | | |
|----------|--|
| 1 | Author of faith, eternal Word, whose Spirit breathes the active flame;
faith, like its finisher and Lord,
today as yesterday the same: |
| 2 | To thee our humble hearts aspire,
and ask the gift unspeakable;
increase in us the kindled fire,
in us the work of faith fulfil. |
| 3 | By faith we know thee strong to save save us, a present Saviour thou!
Whate'er we hope, by faith we have,
future and past subsisting now. |
| 4 | The things unknown to feeble sense, unseen by reason's glimmering ray,
with strong, commanding evidence their heav'nly origin display. |

5 Faith lends its realizing light, the clouds disperse, the shadows fly;
the Invisible appears in sight,
and God is seen by mortal eye.

Charles Wesley 1707-1788

The Holy Gospel
Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

Read by The Reverend Ren Kempthorne

After the announcement

All sing Praise and glory to God

¹That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the lake.
²Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. ³And he told them many things in parables, saying: 'Listen! A sower went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. ⁵Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. ⁶But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. ⁷Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. ⁹Let anyone with ears listen!'
¹⁸'Hear then the parable of the sower. ¹⁹When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. ²⁰As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; ²¹yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. ²²As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. ²³But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.'

The Sermon

Dean Graham O'Brien

Minister of Liturgy We stand to affirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through Him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation, He came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became fully human.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day He rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, and has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Let us pray (Please kneel or be seated)

Intercessions

Graham Allan

We conclude our prayers by saying The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen

The Peace

We stand for the Celebrant to begin the Ministry of the Sacrament

Celebrant The peace of Christ be always with you.
All And also with you.

Celebrant E te whanau, we are the body of Christ.
All By one Spirit we were baptised into one body.

Celebrant Keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
All Amen. We are bound by the love of Christ.

Please remain standing to sing the Offertory hymn, which is the opportunity to worship God with our gifts of tithes and offerings. (The collection is received.)

WE BRING YOU LORD, OUR PRAYER AND PRAISE (CP611)

- 1 We bring you, Lord, our prayer and praise that every child of earth should live and grow in freedom's ways, in dignity and worth.
- 2 We praise for such a task begun to serve each other's need, for every cause of justice won,
 for every fetter freed.
- 3 Our prayers are for a world in pain
 where force and fear prevail,
 the plough becomes the sword again,
 and hope and harvests fail.
- 4 Alike our prayer and praise express the wants of humankind, that those in bondage and distress their larger freedoms find.
- 5 So may we still maintain the fight till earth's oppressions cease before the universal right to liberty and peace.
- 6 In Christ we learn to love and care and spread his truth abroad,
 and in his Name we lift our prayer:
 'Your kingdom come, O Lord.'

Timothy Dudley-Smith 1926

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant Blessed are you, God of all creation;
through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.

All Blessed be God for ever.

Celebrant Kei konei te Ariki. The Lord is here.

All God's Spirit is with us.

Celebrant Kia ara o koutou ngakau. Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Kia whakapai tatou ki to tatou Ariki ki te Atua.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right indeed, it is our joy and our salvation, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, at all times and in all places to give you thanks and praise through Christ your only Son.

You are the source of all life and goodness; through your eternal Word you have created all things from the beginning and formed us in your own image; male and female you created us.

When we sinned and turned away
you called us back to yourself and gave your Son to share our human nature.
By his death on the cross,
he made the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world and freed us from the bondage of sin.

You raised him to life triumphant over death;
you exalted him in glory.
In him you have made us a holy people by sending upon us your holy and lifegiving Spirit.

Therefore, with the faithful who rest in him, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

Choir

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or be seated

Celebrant

All glory and thanksgiving to you, Holy Father, on the night before he died your Son, Jesus Christ, took bread; when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins; do this as often as you drink it, to remember me.

All sing

Glory to you Lord Christ, your death we show forth, your resurrection we proclaim, your coming we await. Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

Celebrant

Therefore, loving God, recalling your great goodness to us in Christ, his suffering and death, his resurrection and ascension, and looking for his coming in glory, we celebrate our redemption with this bread of life and this cup of salvation. Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving which we offer through Christ our great high priest.

Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine which we receive may be to us the body and blood of Christ, and that we, filled with the Spirit's grace and power may be renewed for the service of your kingdom.

United in Christ with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise.

All sing

Blessing, honour and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and forever. Amen.

The Communion

Celebrant

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All

We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

We do not presume to come to your holy table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your great mercy.

We are not worthy even to gather the crumbs from under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.

Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the body of your dear Son, Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him and he in us. Amen.

Choir

*Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us, mercy on us
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us, mercy on us
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
grant us your peace, grant us your peace.*

The Invitation

Celebrant Draw near and receive the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ in remembrance that he died for us. Let us feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

The congregation is invited to receive communion. Wafers will be offered, and individual cups of wine (juice is also available). Gluten free wafers available on request.

During Communion the Choir sings Fairest Lord Jesus - arr. Martin How

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant Father of all,
we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living,
he declared your love,
gave us grace
and opened the gate of glory.

All May we who share Christ's body
 Live his risen life;
 We who drink his cup
 Bring life to others;
 We whom the Spirit lights
 Give light to the world.
 Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
 So we and all your children shall be free,
 And the whole earth live to praise your name.
 Amen.

JUDGE ETERNAL, THRONED IN SPLENDOUR (CP356)

- 1 Judge eternal, throned in splendour, Lord of lords and King of kings, with thy living fire of judgment purge this realm of bitter things:
solace all its wide dominion with the healing of thy wings.
- 2 Still the weary folk are pining
for the hour that brings release:
and the city's crowded clangour cries aloud for sin to cease;
and the homesteads and the woodlands plead in silence for their peace.
- 3 Crown, O Lord, thine own endeavour;
cleave our darkness with thy sword;
cheer the faint and feed the hungry with the richness of thy word; cleanse the body of this nation
through the glory of the Lord.

BARNABAS PRAYER Sunday 14 August 2022

Lord God and Heavenly Father, we bring before You the Church in China, which is increasingly burdened with government restrictions. We think especially of the requirement that churches gain a licence from their provincial government in order to share information online. Thank You that churches are applying for these licences, and that some have succeeded in gaining the necessary permission to continue sharing the Gospel message through the Internet. We pray for those whose applications have been rejected, and others who are unable to apply, that You will grant wisdom to them in how they can adapt their ministry and continue "proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah", for we ask it in His Name. (Acts 5:42)

EQUIP

CONNECT • REFLECT • RESPOND

Following Jesus can feel lonely. Ministry can be hard.

We need spaces to connect. To be encouraged. To be listened to. To be renewed and empowered.

If that's you, join us in Motueka on September 3. We're gathering non-ordained leaders (along with clergy) from across Waimea and Nelson to share our mutual wrestles, find mutual support and create our own sustainable strategies.

Through intentional connection, TED style talks and engaging workshops, you'll walk away feeling ready to face whatever comes next.
