

Welcome to CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL, NELSON

SUNDAY 27 OCTOBER 2024

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time | Te Rātapu Toru Tekau o He Wā Noa

One God!

As a young man in my twenties (some forty years ago) I enjoyed travel. I sojourned in many counties in Europe and in the United States of America. In those days, national identities were clear: France was unmistakably French: from the cut of the clothes, to the brands on sale, from the shop windows to the cars on the roads: all felt indubitably French.

Similarly, Germany felt German: while not all wearing lederhosen and dirndls the clothes were always very smart, the brands Germanic. The cars appeared to be hewn from solid in a very well engineered manner.

In the USA everything was bright and big, from the food portions to the motor cars. It would have been very difficult in those days to confuse one location for another!

More recently I've continued to travel: the profound difference is that now wherever I go, the shops look the same, the brands are the same, the people wear similar clothing and they all drive similar motor cars: from China to the USA and New Zealand to Europe, there is a new uniformity that reflects the concept of a global village. One world!

It caused me to reflect on 'branding'. As Anglicans, do we have all of the answers? Do the Roman Catholics? The Orthodox? Anyone else?

It'd be arrogant to think that we are 'right' and others are 'wrong': we are just following the pathway that somehow fits with our journey through life. The journey that inevitably leads us to the peace of proximity to our maker. To the one God for the one earth!

Music at Christ Church Cathedral

At Evensong while the strains of the Magnificat washed over me, I reflected on how the greatly enhanced music had impacted on our worship. As the choir go off to Wellington for a festival this weekend, let us not only wish them well but express our gratitude for the impact that Paul, Nigel and others have had on our services.

All Saints and All Souls

Please see the box in this publication (p21): we will have the opportunity to light a candle for our loved ones on 3 November at the 10 am service.

Blessings,

Steve

ALL FOR JESUS (CA13)

- 1 All for Jesus! all for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
for we have no hope nor Saviour
if we have not hope in thee.
- 2 All for Jesus! thou wilt give us strength to serve thee, hour by hour; none can move us from thy presence while we trust thy love and pow'r.
- 3 All for Jesus! at thine altar thou dost give us sweet content;
there, dear Saviour, we receive thee in thy holy sacrament.
- 4 All for Jesus! thou hast loved us;
all for Jesus! thou hast died;
all for Jesus! thou art with us;
all for Jesus, glorified.

All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be, till at last the flock is gathered one in love, and one in thee.

The Proclamation of the Word

The Old Testament Lesson

Isaiah 53:4-12

Read by Ernie Leaning

⁴ Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases;
yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted.

⁵ But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. ⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

⁷ He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

⁸ By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. ⁹ They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. ¹⁰ Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain.
When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper.

¹¹ Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. ¹² Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

The New Testament Lesson

Hebrews 5:1-10

Read by Marilynna Burton

¹Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; ³and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. ⁴And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

⁵So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; ⁶as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.'

⁷In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. ⁸Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; ⁹and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, ¹⁰having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

AMAZING GRACE (CA29)

- | | |
|----------|---|
| 1 | Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found;
was blind, but now I see. |
| 2 | 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed. |

- 3 Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come.
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.
- 4 The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.
- 5 When we've been there
a thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

The Holy Gospel

Mark 10:35-45

Read by Reverend Lois Hurd-McKee

After the announcement

All sing Praise and glory to God

³⁵ James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' ³⁶ And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' ³⁷ And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.'

³⁸ But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' ³⁹ They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; ⁴⁰ but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.'

⁴¹ When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John.

⁴² So Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. ⁴³ But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. ⁴⁵ For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

 You create our world and give us life.
 Your purpose overarches everything we do.
 You have always been with us.
 You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous,
good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.
You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ, who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now.
You are God.
You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.
You are our God. We worship you.

Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

THE SERVANT SONG (CA88)

1 Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you,
pray that I may have the grace
to let you be my servant too.

2 We are pilgrims on a journey,
Fellow trav'lers on the road,
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

- 3 I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear,
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.
- 4 I will weep when you are weeping,
when you laugh, I'll laugh with you,
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.
- 5 When we sing to God in heaven,
we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together of Christ's love, and agony.
- 6 Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you,
pray that I may have the grace
to let you be my servant too.

It is the joy of our salvation,
God of the universe,
to give you thanks
through Jesus Christ.
You said, 'Let there be Light';
there was light.
Your light shines on in our darkness.
For you the earth has brought forth life in all its forms.

You have created us
to hear your Word, to do your will
and to be fulfilled in your love.
It is right to thank you.

You sent your Son to be for us
the way we need to follow and the truth we need to know.

You sent your Son to give his life to release us from our sin.
His cross has taken our guilt away.

You send your Holy Spirit to strengthen and to guide, to warn and to revive your Church.

Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars,
we praise you for our creation and our calling, with loving and joyful hearts:

Glory to you most high and gracious God.

Please kneel or be seated

Celebrant

Blessèd are you, most holy, in your Son, who washed his disciples' feet.
"I am among you," he said "as one who serves".

On that night before he died
he took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup,
and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:
Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin;
do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine
we recall your goodness to us.

All

God of the past and present,
we your people remember your Son.
We thank you for his cross and rising again,
we take courage from his ascension;
we look for his coming in glory and in him we give ourselves to you.

Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body
may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine.

Readings for 5:30 pm service:

Genesis 3:1-10

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, 'Did God say, "You shall not eat from any tree in the garden"?' ² The woman said to the serpent, 'We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; ³ but God said, "You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.'" ⁴ But the serpent said to the woman, 'You will not die; ⁵ for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.' ⁶ So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate.

⁷ Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves. ⁸ They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. ⁹ But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, 'Where are you?' ¹⁰ He said, 'I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.'

Romans 12:1-5

¹ I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. ² Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

³ For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

⁴ For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, ⁵ so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

BARNABAS PRAYER Sunday 27 October 2024

Heavenly Father, on this Lord's Day we think of those who meet for worship knowing that they may face imminent violent attack. We consider those who cannot meet, because their faith must remain hidden, or because their churches have been closed down. We think also of those who meet in secret, not knowing whether this will be the last Sunday before they are discovered. For all such we pray that You will send blessings, comfort and the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, causing them to place their hope and their confidence in the One who has overcome the world, because we ask it in His Name. (John 16:33)

Nelson Cathedral Christian Meditation Group

Silence, Stillness, Simplicity

In our frantic world, is this something that you are seeking?

Our small and friendly Christian Meditation group meets each Tuesday in the Chapel, to meditate together.

Winter hours from 9th April 4:30-5:30

Summer hours from October 5:30-6:30

Come and join us and learn more about this ancient spiritual practice.

It's easy to learn!

'Making time in our busy lives to open our hearts to the silent presence of God'.

ALL WELCOME

You may have noticed some diggers appearing in the carpark by Marsden House – land which the Cathedral owns but leases to Marsden House. Back in August at our special parish meeting, I mentioned that Vestry had been approached about a possible sale of this land. The interested party has asked to dig some test-pits to determine the suitability of the land for building. Any sale has to be agreed to by the Parish at a special AGM, as well as both the Diocesan Standing Committee and Diocesan Trust Board. If a sale was approved, the aim is to invest the capital to generate funding for ongoing ministry and also some towards earthquake strengthening funds.

EMMAUS STUDY

The Emmaus study group format is a reading of the biblical text and a short exegesis followed by discussion. Wednesdays at 12.00 until 1.00pm.

All are welcome.

Oct 30	John 4:43-5:15
November 6	John 5:16-47
November 13	John 6:1-24
November 20	John 6:25-59
November 27	John 7:25-52

Can You Help?

The Elves designing the Welcome Tree for the Christmas Tree Festival would like to borrow gifts that may have been in the stockings for a child in the 1940's or 1950's.
