1st Sunday of the Epiphany | Baptism Of The Lord | Te Iriiringa o te Karaiti | Krist Ka Baptishma (Hindi)

PRAYING FOR PEACE

Sitting in this relatively quiet and peaceful corner of the Pacific Ocean, we are in danger of having been lulled into a sense of separation from the trouble spots of the world.

Of late, however, we have seen increasing evidence that all three earthly superpowers have territorial ambitions: more specifically expansionist ambitions.

This is of significant concern to many of us, and rightly so. So many Kiwis have been engaged in conflicts far from home, and many (indeed a disproportionate number) have made the supreme sacrifice. On ANZAC Day a few years ago our high altar was adorned by the flag which had covered the body of a New Zealand serviceman who'd lost his life on a peacekeeping mission. It was a poignant moment.

A number of regular cathedralites have themselves served on peace missions in the trouble spots of the world. It's a dangerous undertaking that requires courage and determination.

The Old Testament provides many examples of warfare in what we now call the Middle East: mostly about territorial expansion of different powers, which themselves waxed and waned over time. A legacy of globalisation is that the world now has three superpowers, with increasing tension between them. We can but offer our prayers and petitions to God that the Holy Spirit acts and helps to bring about lasting world peace: erasing the reciprocity of wrongdoing and lifting territorial ambitions.

If we could all work together, infused with the Spirit of God for the good of humankind, the world would be a safer place. Please join me in continuing to pray for peace in our time.

Blessings,

Steve

The Proclamation of the Word

The Old Testament Lesson

Isaiah 42:1-9

Read by Ernie Leaning

<sup>1</sup> Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.

<sup>2</sup> He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street;

<sup>3</sup> a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.

<sup>4</sup> He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

<sup>5</sup> Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it:

<sup>6</sup> I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations,

<sup>7</sup> to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.

<sup>8</sup> I am the LORD, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols.

<sup>9</sup> See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

The New Testament Lesson

Acts 10:34-43

Read by Julie Cottle

<sup>34</sup> Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, <sup>35</sup> but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup> You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all.

<sup>37</sup> That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: <sup>38</sup> how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>39</sup> We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; <sup>40</sup> but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, <sup>41</sup> not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

<sup>42</sup> He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup> All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 3:13-17

Read by David Brown

After the announcement

All sing                    Praise and glory to God

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup> John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' <sup>15</sup> But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. <sup>16</sup> And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. <sup>17</sup> And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant      Blessed are you, God of all creation;
through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings in any form for your glory
and for the service of your kingdom.
Accept these prayers in the name of your Son.

All                      Blessed be God for ever.

Celebrant      Christ is risen!
All                      He is risen indeed.

Celebrant      Lift your hearts to heaven
All                      Where Christ in glory reigns.

Celebrant      Let us give thanks to God.
All                      It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Celebrant      It is the joy of our salvation,
God of the universe,
to give you thanks
through Jesus Christ.
You said, 'Let there be Light';
there was light.
Your light shines on in our darkness.
For you the earth has brought forth life
in all its forms.

You have created us
to hear your Word,
to do your will
and to be fulfilled in your love.
It is right to thank you.

You sent your Son to be for us
the way we need to follow and the truth we need to know.

You sent your Son to give his life to release us from our sin.
His cross has taken our guilt away.

You send your Holy Spirit
to strengthen and to guide,
to warn and to revive your Church.

Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars,
we praise you for our creation and our calling, with loving and joyful hearts:

All Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and just,
glory and goodness come from you.
Glory to you most high and gracious God.

Please kneel or be seated

Celebrant Blessed are you, most holy, in your Son, who washed his disciples' feet.
"I am among you," he said "as one who serves".
On that night before he died
he took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.
After supper, he took the cup,
and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:
Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin;
do this to remember me.
Therefore with this bread and wine
we recall your goodness to us.

All God of the past and present,
we your people remember your Son.
We thank you for his cross and rising again,
we take courage from his ascension;
we look for his coming in glory
and in him we give ourselves to you.

Celebrant                      Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body
may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine.

All                              Called to follow Christ, help us to reconcile and unite.
Called to suffer,
give us hope in our calling.

Celebrant                      For you, the heavenly one, make all things new;
you are the beginning and the end,
the last and the first.

All                              Praise, glory and love be yours,
this and every day,
from us and all people,
here and everywhere.
Amen.

The Communion

Celebrant                      Christ's body was broken for us on the cross.
All                              Christ is the bread of life.

Thank You, Jesus, for the Christian schools where Christian children can get an education in a loving environment surrounded by other believers. Thank You for enabling us to support these little children in their education, when without these schools they would otherwise be forced to learn in an oppressive environment where they may be persecuted for their faith. We pray that these schools will enable the children to grow strong in faith as they also grow their knowledge, so that by the time they finish their studies they will be well-informed, faithful Christians set up for a life that will help them escape the poverty cycle in which so many persecuted believers are trapped.
