SUNDAY 1 FEBRUARY 2026

The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple | Te Tapaenga o te Karaiti i te Temepara

THE PRESENTATION OF JESUS IN THE TEMPLE

This week we mark the presentation, a well-known biblical account from the Holy Gospel according to Luke. It makes an interesting read when approached in conjunction with the story of the Epiphany (Matthew 2:9-11). Both accounts hinge on the infant Jesus being recognised for what He was: the Messiah, the Christ, or anointed one. In these two very different accounts, we have evidence from two different directions that somehow the infant Christ had something about Him that was 'special' when observed by others. Although the stories are different and from different authors, they somehow resonate, and bring powerful confirmation to us of this aspect of Jesus' life.

CATHEDRAL COMINGS AND GOINGS

This Sunday we welcome the Association of Anglican Women (AAW) to the cathedral as we mark their contribution to the church. They will play a part in the 10.00 service.

The series of Adam concerts has begun, and will be hosted at Founders, NCMA and the cathedral. Our thanks and congratulations not only to the performers but also to the army of 'behind the scenes' workers who have again striven to make this a special season.

The Kids' Church starts again next Sunday (Waitangi Weekend) and the choir return from furlough the following week. Christmas seems just behind us: hard to think that Ash Wednesday is on 18 February, just a couple of weeks away! I'm delighted to tell you that we will once more share an ecumenical evening service with our Roman cousins, this time at St Mary's Holy Family, Manuka Street. Details will follow.....

Blessings,

Steve

The Proclamation of the Word

The Old Testament Lesson

Malachi 3:1-4

Read by Noeline Curtis, AAW.

<sup>1</sup>See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>2</sup>But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; <sup>3</sup>he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. <sup>4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

The New Testament Lesson

Hebrews 2:14-18

Read by Kathy Cuthbert, AAW.

<sup>14</sup> Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup> and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. <sup>16</sup> For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. <sup>17</sup> Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup> Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

We stand to sing the Gradual Hymn

AAW Hymn (Tune: Slane)

2 We thank you for fellowship, Your gift of joy
The prayers that unite us, the words we employ,
Your Church's true mission to foster we pray
Reflecting Your love in all we do and say.

3      Bless families and homes of Your people, O Lord
The sad and the needy, at home or abroad;
And strengthened by faith,
Lord, may we never cease;
To show in our living Your love and your peace.

Please remain standing for the Gospel reading

The Holy Gospel
Luke 2:22-40
Read by Judith Fitchett, AAW.

After the announcement

All sing

Praise and glory to God

<sup>22</sup> When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the law of the Lord, ‘Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord’), <sup>24</sup> and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, ‘a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.’

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. <sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. <sup>27</sup> Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

<sup>29</sup> ‘Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word;

<sup>30</sup> for my eyes have seen your salvation,

<sup>31</sup> which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

<sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.’

<sup>33</sup> And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. <sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, ‘This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed <sup>35</sup> so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed — and a sword will pierce your own soul too.’

<sup>36</sup> There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, <sup>37</sup> then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day.

<sup>38</sup> At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. <sup>40</sup> The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

LET ALL MORTAL FLESH KEEP SILENCE (CA381)

1                   Let all mortal flesh keep silence and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly-minded, for with blessing in his hand Christ our God on earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

2                   King of kings, yet born of Mary,
as of old on earth he stood,

his own self for heav'nly food.

3                   Rank on rank the host of heaven

as the Light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day, that the pow'rs of hell may vanish
as the darkness clears away.

4                   At his feet the six-winged seraph;
cherubim, with sleepless eye,
veil their faces to the Presence,
as with ceaseless voice they cry,
alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, Lord most high.

Celebrant

All

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed.

Lift your hearts to heaven.

Where Christ in glory reigns.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is the joy of our salvation,
God of the universe,
to give you thanks
through Jesus Christ.

You said, 'Let there be Light';
there was light.

Your light shines on in our darkness.
For you the earth has brought forth life in all its forms.

You have created us
to hear your Word, to do your will
and to be fulfilled in your love.
It is right to thank you.

You sent your Son to be for us the way we need to follow and the truth we need to know.

His star, mysterious and inviting,
calls us to worship the Christ who is born.
For he is Emmanuel, God revealed in human form for all the human race;
to him we offer our homage and our gifts.

You sent your Son to give his life to release us from our sin.

His cross has taken our guilt away.

You send your Holy Spirit to strengthen and to guide, to warn and to revive your Church.

Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars, we praise you for our creation and our calling, with loving and joyful hearts:

All
Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and just, glory and goodness come from you.
Glory to you most high and gracious God.

Please kneel or be seated

Celebrant

Blessèd are you, most holy, in your Son, who washed his disciples' feet.
“I am among you,” he said “as one who serves”.

On that night before he died
he took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup,
and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:
Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin;
do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine we recall your goodness to us.

All
God of the past and present, we your people remember your Son.
We thank you for his cross and rising again,
we take courage from his ascension;
we look for his coming in glory and in him we give ourselves to you.

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine.

All Called to follow Christ, help us to reconcile and unite.
Called to suffer,
give us hope in our calling.

Celebrant For you, the heavenly one, make all things new;
you are the beginning and the end,
the last and the first.

All Praise, glory and love be yours,
this and every day,
from us and all people,
here and everywhere.
Amen.

The Communion

Celebrant Christ's body was broken for us on the cross.
Christ is the bread of life.

Celebrant His blood was shed for our forgiveness.

BARNABAS PRAYER

Sunday 1 February, 2026

Lord, we lift up before You our brothers and sisters who have become refugees and internally displaced people because of persecution, conflict or disaster. We ask that Your sheltering presence enfold them, bringing comfort in uncertainty and hope in despair. Provide them with safe refuge, daily provision, and strength for each new day. Bless those who serve them – aid workers, volunteers and communities – that their hands may be instruments of compassion and wisdom. May the displaced find connection, dignity and a renewed sense of purpose, and may Your peace settle over them like a gentle, unshakeable light. Let Your love be their anchor, guiding them through every storm – we ask in our Saviour's Name.
